

August 2008

From the Dean

By Glenn May and Charles Faverio

This is the month for thanks, marked by deep gratitude, to each Monmouth Chapter member, who, as you read this issue of Fanfares, has earned applause for making the AGO Monmouth Chapter prestigious in the eyes of other chapters. You have made the chapter a welcoming group, very much like a family, all dedicated to excellent music ministry. You are important to others, and so we remind you to keep us informed with news of your doings or plans so that these can be included in future issues.

Special thanks go to the following:

Shirley Norby for her superb work of leadership as dean in the past three years, and for the continuing support she gives without hesitation.

Camille Thompson for being a great hostess by letting us have the last meeting of the year in her extraordinary home on Grand Avenue in Asbury Park.

Also, her presence at times of need for the Chapter has been unfailing.

Steven Russell, Editor of Fanfares, for he is steadfast in his work, and fun to be with, especially when he hosts chapter meetings. Well done.

David Timidaiski, our intrepid treasurer and enthusiastic registrar, deserves not only our thanks for that, but also special thanks for mailing out issues of the Fanfares to members without email.

Marilyn Brace, our secretary, for her work, and also for her wit and contagious smile. She is always willing to volunteer for playing or working.

Walter Helfrecht, editor of the Cipher, published by him for many years and produced as a spiffy-looking booklet, is the envy of other chapters.

Ken Clayton, past dean and current sub-dean, in his quiet presence has kept the chapter stable and yet exciting. His advice is a treasure of great profit.

Mimi Mansky for taking minutes at our most recent chapter meeting with the planned activities for the coming year (listed elsewhere in this issue).

Rev. Jane Price, chaplain, whose warm personality and profoundly appropriate prayers have enhanced the chapter members' sense of importance and dedication, deserves in return our words and prayers of gratitude.

Note: the appointed chapter officers will continue to do their hard work in meeting the demands of their tasks for the chapter and each one of us. For this they deserve our thanks and applause.
